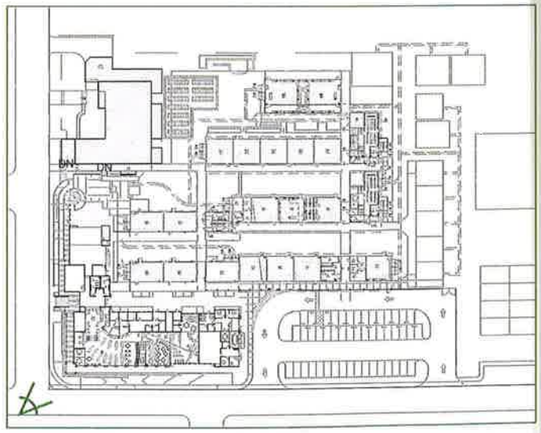
The Lincoln Street and School Lane Elevations indicate a clear distinction between Library and School Entrances. The context of the area is enhanced by the close proximity to the street. Arcades along both streets express the public nature of the facility and encourage community use.



Lincoln Street View

Celebrating Lemon Grove