Supervisor Greg Cox In the Coming Week

GETTING SAN DIEGANS INVOLVED IN EARTH DAY

Supervisor Greg Cox will urge San Diegans to join in the spirit of Earth Day by recycling household items such as used batteries and cellular phones, digital cameras and cordless power tools that have rechargeable batteries that can and should be recycled. Cox will join representatives of the Industrial Environmental Association and the Rechargeable Battery Recycling Corporation to announce the Call2Recycle awareness campaign. The campaign is being launched as Earth Day approaches and will give San Diegans an opportunity to help protect the environment.

11 a.m. Wednesday, April 11, County Administration Center (west side), 1600 Pacific Highway, San Diego.

PROTECTING STUDENTS IN OUR SCHOOLS

Supervisor Greg Cox will welcome about 200 school and law enforcement officials to a special workshop on reducing school violence. The workshop is part of the Safe School Initiative, a program conducted by the U.S. Department of Education and the Secret Service. The workshop is being conducted by the County Office of Emergency Services, the County Office of Education, San Diego Crime Stoppers and the U.S. Secret Service.

9:30 a.m. Thursday, April 12, Captain's Room, Marina Village, 1936 Quivira Way, San Diego.
